

Diploma 34D

The House of Education,
Ambleside.

19.11.1905

It would give Miss Mason much pleasure
if Mr. (Miss) - would assist at a Little Conference of Elementary Teachers & others to be held interested in education to be held here on Dec. 9th.

Miss Mason hopes for the assistance of Mr.
Wynne Williams

Conference 11.30 - 1.0

Scrabble at Lunches 1 PM

Ambleside after lunch on the opportunity to inspect books, examination papers etc illustrating the accompanying pamphlet.

Mr. J. would be glad to help which perhaps advance.

Sept 30 1921

Agenda

1. A common curriculum for schools of all classes for children under fourteen.
2. A liberal curriculum upon which such ^{principles} as history, as the ^{principles} of the children C. should turn.
3. The use of books as making such a curriculum possible.
4. How books may be used with advantage.
5. The relief to teachers which should come from the use of books.

The House of Education,
Ambleside.

id p30mc3120

W. of Ambleside

It would give Miss Mason much pleasure if Mr (Miss) would assist at a little Conference of Elementary Teachers, & others interested in Education, to be held here on December 9th.

Miss Mason hopes for the assistance of Mr Wynn Williams.

Conveyance will leave Ambleside Station at 10.45. Arriving there meet with Conference 11:30 - 1pm. 30 min will be a luncheon, 1pm (after luncheon) the opportunity to inspect books, examination papers, etc. illustrating the accompanying pamphlet, which perhaps Mr- (Miss) would be good enough to read in advance.

AGENDA:-

- (1) A common curriculum for schools of all classes for children under 14.
- (2) A liberal curriculum.
- (3) English History as the point upon which such a curriculum should turn.
- (4) The free use of books by the children as making such a curriculum possible.

P.T.O.

2. By Mr. Wynn Williams

(5). The relief to teachers which should accrue from the use of books.

(6) An Educative syllabus - What are the essentials of ? How far possible in public elementary schools ?

22/11/1903

The House of Education,
Ambleside.

24. 11. 1903

Dear

I would be of much service & would give Miss Mason much pleasure if you would assist at a little Conference of teachers & others interested in Education, to be held then on Saturday Dec. 9th.

Mr. Wynne Williams will take the chair

— I am, Mrs. Wynne
C. P. Mason, (Wm.)

P.T.D

Expm 313D

R. S. V. P.

to

E. Bryan Williams Esq

Beaumont

Winclesmere

1. An education syllabus - what are the essentials? How far possible in elementary schools?
2. A common Curriculum for schools of all classes for children under 14.
3. English History as the pivot upon which a liberal Curriculum should turn.
4. The for use of books by children as making such a Curriculum possible.
5. The value to teachers which should accrue from the use of books.